

GOD CAN DO IT

by

WENTWORTH BYRON WINSLOW

Published by
THE BOOKMARK
Post Office Box 801143
Santa Clarita, CA 91380

This transcript is based on the Christian Science textbook
Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures
by Mary Baker Eddy
Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science.

Unless otherwise noted, the quotations in this transcript are from the writings of Mary Baker Eddy.

All quotations from the Bible are from the authorized King James version.

For additional information about Christian Science:

Visit our Home Page: thebookmark.com

Write: The Bookmark

Post Office Box 801143

Santa Clarita, CA 91380

Call: 1-800-220-7767

Dedicated in loving, grateful thanks to God's Messenger to this age, Mary Baker Eddy. Without her revelation of God as given to us in her inspired writings, — this Kingdom of God here today would never have been found by

The Author

He that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him.

Hebrews 11:6

The only way to handle malpractice (bad practice) is to practice right when the temptation comes to practice wrong; choosing always to serve good and not evil.

INTRODUCTION

Jesus said: "Let not him who seeks cease until he finds, and when he finds he shall be astonished; astonished he shall reach the kingdom, and having reached the kingdom he shall rest."

For nearly a third of a century the author of this book has endeavored to bring health, joy and peace to the suffering, sorrowful and hungry; in other words, to bring to seekers after Truth the vision of the Christ — the light of Mind, whereby they too might behold the Kingdom of God even as he himself beholds it. We may not all see eye to eye today with the statements of the author, but he who reads may accept or reject them; nevertheless they are the revelations unfolded to the author as he has come nearer and nearer to the Kingdom of God — that Kingdom not being in the far-distant future nor in the near-distant future, but here and now. God alone is infallible, and God alone provides the means for our advancement, and just to the extent that he, the author, has caught the Word of God, are these writings true. With added spiritual growth and understanding, some things which appear to be true today may give place to the higher vision of the allness of God.

In the spirit of divine Love, following humbly in the footsteps of her upon whom the Holy Ghost descended in this age, and which enabled him to attain this vision of the Christ, this book goes forth into the world, bearing with it the hope and trust that through its perusal others may feel this same descent of the Holy Ghost upon them, and so find that "peace which passeth all understanding."

The Author
Careswell
Eighty Ibis Street
Forest Hills, Long Island

L'Envoi

And only the Master shall praise us, and only the Master shall blame,
And no one shall work for money, and no one shall work for fame,
But each for the joy of the working, and each,
in his separate star,
Shall draw the Thing as he sees It for the Good of Things as They Are!

Rudyard Kipling

PRAYER

The hours I spend with thee, O Christ,
Are my unceasing prayer to thee.
I think of one unending bliss, O Christ
My very love, my very life.
Each thought of thee—itself a prayer,
To still my consciousness of wrong,
I think of thee from morn to morn,
And thou art glorified.

O wondrous hours that bless and glow,
As in thy consciousness I grow,
I glory in thy high esteem and strive
To know thee more and more —
To know thee more.

Wentworth Byron Winslow

“Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.” — The Kingdom of God is here (not will be).

AMEN
It IS Done

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: According to remarks that Mr. Winslow has written about himself in his books, he lived as a boy in Fredericton, New Brunswick, Canada. He was educated to some extent in England. He was apparently from a very wealthy family, for he writes, “Many years ago the writer started out to play a part in the world. He has everything necessary to make a success of his part and make it a happy one. He had a father, highly respected, with a pedigree unexcelled, who gave him a first-class education; who put him into what was considered one of the finest positions leading up to an honorable career, if advantage were taken of the opportunities present; who gave him the entree everywhere that was worthwhile having an entree to; in fact, who started him off with advantages far beyond the ordinary. Instead of taking his part, however, the writer traveled along another road of his own choosing, and finally became ill, until some thirty-five years ago he was given up to die, and this verdict was pronounced by some of the best physicians in New York.

“About this time he heard of the wonderful might of the Lord to heal and save, and, though little impressed, sought out one who professed to heal through this power. This man told him to ‘put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to fulfill the lusts thereof’ (Paul to the Romans), and showed him how to take his part; and, as he did so, he became wholly healed and well.”

Mr. Winslow was listed as a practitioner in The Christian Science Journal from 1906 through 1938. His office for many years was at 16 East 43rd Street, in New York City. He published his first book in 1937, and his name was no longer in the Journal in 1938. Since he wrote three more books, we might assume that he lost his listing in the Journal for publishing a book without the approval of the Christian Science Board of Directors in Boston. His last article in his last book, God Is Doing It, is on the Manual, and in reading it, one can see that he most likely was excommunicated from the Church he loved so dearly and served so faithfully. At the same time, he seemed to realize that the advancing student of Christian Science sooner or later outgrows organization and leaves behind membership in the Church in Boston in order to bring to fruition his full potential as a student of Christian Science.

He had three articles published in the Christian Science Sentinel:

“Is Matter Slowly Dying?” (1904)

Volume 7, Number 16, page 244

“The Wisdom of Modest Statement” (1905)

Volume 8, Number 18, page 277

“The Christian Science Practitioner” (1906)

Volume 11, Number 35, page 685

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: According to remarks that Mr. Winslow has written about himself in his books, he lived as a boy in Fredericton, New Brunswick, Canada. He was educated to some extent in England. He was apparently from a very wealthy family, for he writes, "Many years ago the writer started out to play a part in the world. He has everything necessary to make a success of his part and make it a happy one. He had a father, highly respected, with a pedigree unexcelled, who gave him a first-class education; who put him into what was considered one of the finest positions leading up to an honorable career, if advantage were taken of the opportunities present; who gave him the entree everywhere that was worthwhile having an entree to; in fact, who started him off with advantages far beyond the ordinary. Instead of taking his part, however, the writer traveled along another road of his own choosing, and finally became ill, until some thirty-five years ago he was given up to die, and this verdict was pronounced by some of the best physicians in New York.

"About this time he heard of the wonderful might of the Lord to heal and save, and, though little impressed, sought out one who professed to heal through this power. This man told him to 'put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to fulfill the lusts thereof' (Paul to the Romans), and showed him how to take his part; and, as he did so, he became wholly healed and well."

Mr. Winslow was listed as a practitioner in The Christian Science Journal from 1906 through 1938. His office for many years was at 16 East 43rd Street, in New York City. He published his first book in 1937, and his name was no longer in the Journal in 1938. Since he wrote three more books, we might assume that he lost his listing in the Journal for publishing a book without the approval of the Christian Science Board of Directors in Boston. His last article in his last book, God Is Doing It, is on the Manual, and in reading it, one can see that he most likely was excommunicated from the Church he loved so dearly and served so faithfully. At the same time, he seemed to recognize that the advancing student of Christian Science must sooner or later outgrow organization and leave behind The Mother Church in order to go forward and demonstrate the whole of Christian Science.

He had three articles published in the Christian Science Sentinel:

"Is Matter Slowly Dying?" (1904)

Volume 7, Number 16, page 244

"The Wisdom of Modest Statement" (1905)

Volume 8, Number 18, page 277

"The Christian Science Practitioner" (1906)

Volume 11, Number 35, page 685