

Psyops on Psyops on Psyops

All the anomalies are flooding social media on what happened with Charlie Kirk, theories, reasons, etc.

None of it can be explained in linear mind-thoughts. It's layers upon layers, and lenses within lenses, in a multidimensional landscape.

These collective 'viral' movie events are perceived very different by different people with different lenses—different consciousness.

And you, the awakened ones, must remember — these theatrical global events, are NOT for you. They are designed for the sleepy collective, crafted to accelerate their awakening. In order for the veil to lift, the foundational illusions of their constructed reality must crack and collapse. The systemic structures that have upheld the false matrix — media, politics, education, finance — must appear questionable, unstable, even absurd. This unraveling is necessary. The mainstream narratives must begin to contradict themselves so blatantly that even the most conditioned minds are forced to pause, to question, to look deeper. This is the divine orchestration of collapse in service of awakening.

This is precisely why the “public movie” appears so absurdly low-budget and poorly produced. The illusion must become so blatantly ridiculous, so theatrically unbelievable, that even the most deeply matrix-tethered normie is jolted into awareness. The narrative has to break itself. It has to reach a level of absurdity where the cognitive dissonance becomes unbearable. It needs to provoke that inner reckoning where they yell, “This cannot be real!” That rupture in belief is the crack where the Light gets in. The performance is not failing... it's functioning perfectly as a catalyst for awakening.

This is why the head of the FBI director is purposely hinting all at masonic theatrics with the number 33.

I cannot say what happened exactly because I do not know, but the assassination ATTEMPT on Charlie is real. The [DS] plan to kill Charlie was foiled, but the 'event' continued. Think the multi-layers of ongoing sting-ops. The narrative is 'scripted' by the White Hats to break the decades-long spellbound and indoctrination. It will also be used to create new laws—possibly repelling the Smith-Mundt Act, where mockingbird media are allowed to lie to their viewers.

This event is already catalyzing another profound shift in the collective consciousness worldwide. Think Project Looking Glass: in order for mass consciousness to ascend into a higher octave of reality, certain pivotal world events must unfold. These events act as energetic inflection points — and when they occur, the probability of achieving the collective end-goal rises significantly. Though we are not meant to grasp every nuance of the multidimensional mechanisms in motion, from a higher vantage point, the shift is unmistakable. Even those who appear deeply asleep are being stirred by these global triggers. The ripple effects are accelerating.

“Regarding Charlie Kirk’s tragic death, many of us can agree that something just doesn’t feel right and our soul hurts right now. In the past, when we’ve witnessed such heartbreaking events... like 9/11, the assassinations of MLK and JFK—most people initially accepted the official explanations. But over time, as more details emerged, we’ve uncovered important truths that were hidden from the public.

Now, in this emotional moment, when so many of us truly loved and admired Charlie Kirk, I absolutely don’t want to disrespect or dishonor him, nor do we intend to suggest anything foolish or irresponsible. Morally, that’s the last thing I want to do. Yet, at the same time, I can’t ignore the feeling that there’s so much more not being said. There were too many anomalies surrounding the events.

Something is off, and we all can feel it deep down. It’s perfectly okay, and necessary, to ask questions. We must keep seeking the truth, no matter how uncomfortable it gets.”
