

The Demise of Pleasant View

Home of Mary Baker Eddy from 1892-1908

by Christeen L. Anderson

Part I

History of Pleasant View

Pleasant View

Site of Mary Baker Eddy's home from 1892-1908. The original house is no longer standing. The First Church of Christ, Scientist in Boston, built the present structure as a retirement residence for Christian Science practitioners and nurses in 1926. The Church no longer owns the property.

233 Pleasant Street

It took a combination of sinners
that was fast to harm me.

Mary Baker Eddy

Nov. 28 1910.

It took a combination of sinners that was fast to harm me.

Mary Baker Eddy
Nov. 28, 1910

Facsimile of the statement dictated to Laura Sargent, November 28, 1910, and signed by Mary Baker Eddy.