

CONTENTS

Note to the Reader	i
PROLOGUE	1
CHAPTER ONE, First Day	4
Genuine and Spurious Authorship	6
Genuine and Spurious Healing	7
Mind over Mind	9
The Mythical Sufferer Is Not I	9
Mrs. Patterson's Articles and Letters	12
The Fall upon the Ice	25
Mind-Healing History	27
CHAPTER TWO, Second Day	34
Further Writings and Records of Mrs. Patterson	36
True Practice and False	51
"Which Path Would You Take?"	56
Withdrawal of Concession	58
CHAPTER THREE, Third Day	65
The Complete Written Statement	66
The "I" Which Is God	66
The False "I" as Person	67
The False "I" as Sex	67
Use and Misuse of Mind	68
Mediumship and Necromancy	70
Religion and Society	71
"I Is God"—The Basis of the "Church of Christ"	72
Problems with First Assemblies	72
Impact of Science and Health	74
Asa Gilbert Eddy Embraces Christian Science	76
Special Need for Second Edition	78
Problems with Second Edition	81
The Early Healing	88
The Lawsuits	89
Mrs. Eddy's Written Accounts	92
From Law Court to Tabernacle	95
CHAPTER FOUR, Fourth Day	100
Plagiarism	108
Right and Wrong Practice	109

Most of the Lynn Students Defect	111
Death of Asa Gilbert Eddy	117
Early Days at the College	124
The Quimby Legacy	126
A Newspaper to "Right the Wrongs"	131
CHAPTER FIVE, Fifth Day	141
Persons Who Err	146
New Degrees and Courses Offered	156
Treatment of Cases	160
Theological Encounters	163
Personalism and Pantheism	178
Spiritual Sight	182
"I Is There"	186
Animal Magnetism Equated with Free Love	187
Some Clergymen Switch Over	192
Incorporated Institutes	197
Philosophy and an Editor's Downfall	203
The Mental Practitioners	212
Unwarranted "Fear of Evil"	214
Church Organization Questioned	215
The Fair and George Glover	224
Decision to Go to Chicago	233
The Second Serious Rebellion	234
Unwanted Personal Triumph	236
"Science and the Senses"	241
Quarrelsome Students	250
Mrs. Eddy's Quiet Withdrawal from C.S.A.	252
Classroom Topics	254
Further Withdrawals of Person	263
How to Correct the False Suggestions	264
Error Not in Patient	270
Death of a New York Worker	273
More Troubles with the Editorship	279
The Children of the Children	281
Rise of William Nixon	286
Five Personal Withdrawals Completed	288
Unorthodox Marriage	289
CHAPTER SIX, Sixth Day	292
Personal Pastorate and Hypnotic Pitfalls	298
The Real Marriage	300

Congregational versus Divine Control	310
C.S.A. Becomes a Voluntary Association	313
Disorganizing the Church	316
Rivalries and Pretensions	333
Voluntary Membership Challenged	336
The New York Convention	341
The Fiftieth Edition	348
Rejection of Memorial Church	352
Suppression More Dangerous than Copyright Violation	359
Some Publisher and Publication Blunders	369
An Editor of High Personal Qualities	377
The Divisive Lie Of Childbirth	386
The Legal Hassle Begins	393
Perils of Reorganization	404
New Thoughts on Memorial Church	419
God's Solution Comes to Light	428
New Board Assumes Control of Old Church	433
Church, Members, Congregation	437
Rules to Govern Membership	442
Christ's Church versus Priestcraft	451
The Pastorate and the Four Directors	453
Christ and Christmas	464
Christian Science and the Parliament of Religions	472
Church Foundation Laid	483
Virginity of Jesus' Mother	491
"My Work Is Done"	497
The Church "Is Finished"	503
Permanent and Enduring Character	511
EPILOGUE	516
Impersonal Sermon at Dedication	517
Rules to Define Membership	521
The Bates Invitation	524